PRICE

“Sleek and focused, with notes of damson plum, red currant coulis and dark cherry preserves corseted tightly with signed tobacco, cast iron and loam accents. Cedar and sanguine notes add a twang amid the dark fruit, giving the finish a mouthwatering edge.”

- JAMES MOLESWORTH, MARCH 2024

Part of the Heitz Cellar estate since 1984. Nestled between Silverado Trail and Conn Creek on the fertile, eastern side of the Rutherford appellation, only the best blocks are selected for this terroir-driven cabernet sauvignon. Vinified in the classic Heitz style, Trailside features one of the valley’s most complex combinations of soil and clone diversity for a single site, revealing itself as a defining wine of the greatest 20th Century Napa Valley Estates.
