Chouilly, the most northern Grand Cru village in the Côte des Blancs, is the birthplace of the Legras-Haas family and the foundation of their wines. The family cultivates 18 hectares of vines in these outstanding hills. With its 35 parcels spread out in almost all of the village areas, the family's estate offers an extraordinary diversity of Chardonnay styles. Chouilly benefits from a primarily Eastern and Northern exposure with gently sloping hillsides and lowlands which impart richness and strength to the wines.

The cuvée Intuition is the quintessence of the Maison's style and the result of a very personal approach. With this wine, the family seeks to reflect their vision of the ultimate champagne. The production process is a balancing act and one that requires lashings of creativity. The incredible diversity of the family estate is perfectly captured in this signature blend. The chardonnay imparts finesse, elegance, white stone fruits and ethereal citrus notes. The pinot meunier gives a smooth, exotic and reassuring
