"This is a darkly concentrated and perfumed expression of Nebbiolo from Serralunga d'Alba. The Ca' Rome' 2018 Barolo Cerretta is a robust, full-bodied wine with dark cherry, plum, earth, black licorice and campfire ash. This wine has the power and texture to pair with succulent pork pot roast."

— MONICA LARNER, AUGUST 2022

This single vineyard parcel was named after the Cerretta MGA, Serralunga d'Alba, and planted in 1961 with Nebbiolo Michet and Lampia covering 1.7 hectares. The density is 5,000 vines per hectare, which yields an average yearly production of only 8,000 bottles.
