PRICE

“Stylish, with sleek, racy mulberry and warmed cassis notes that are nicely defined, laced liberally with red tea, anise and apple wood. Shows subtle mesquite, mint and iron flashes in the background throughout. Nicely done for the vintage.”

– JAMES MOLESWORTH, NOVEMBER 2023

Part of the Heitz Cellar estate since 1984. Nestled between Silverado Trail and Conn Creek on the fertile, eastern side of the Rutherford appellation, only the best blocks are selected for this terroir-driven cabernet sauvignon. Vinified in the classic Heitz style, Trailside features one of the valley’s most complex combinations of soil and clone diversity for a single site, revealing itself as a defining wine of the greatest 20th Century Napa Valley Estates.
