“Bright aromas of hibiscus with citrus and roses. So floral. Medium-bodied with a brightness and crunchiness. From a very low density vineyard of Martini clones, planted in 1968. Drink now.”

— JAMES SUCKLING, MARCH 2023

Floral, spicy, and aromatic, Forgeron Pinot Noir has the structure of Burgundy but with sun-kissed fruit that rounds out the palate. Planted in 1968 with Louis Martini clones, these vines can live in the world of restraint even in years with heat spikes. This is whole cluster Pinot Noir with subtle oak aging and higher acidity due to the cool vineyard site.
