"The palate is more vibrant than the nose, with chalk-dusted, fulsome fruit complemented by firm acidity. A vein of richness elevates the wine and imparts structure."

– WINE ENTHUSIAST

Domaine Roc de l'Abbaye, owned and operated by the Mollet family for multiple generations, is located in Saint-Satur, a village in the heart of Sancerre with winegrowing origins dating back to the 11th century.

This benchmark Loire Sauvignon Blanc is sourced from the winery's vineyards in Oisly, in Touraine near the Cher river to ensure freshness and intense aromatics.
