PRICE

"Scented of cassis, graphite, cherries and sage, it's firmly structured and medium-bodied, framed by ample (fruit) tannins that linger elegantly on the long finish... It's a refined, elegant offering, one that should be cellared for at least several years and then drink well for two decades."

- JOE CZERWINSKI, MARCH 31, 2023

The vineyard is dry-farmed and picked before the fruit is excessively ripe. This produces a nuanced, food-friendly wine with integrated tannins, strong fruit, and a crisp acidic finish that follows in the Stony Hill tradition.
