

MAZZEI
1435

2020 SER LAPO

Chianti Classico Reserva DOCG

- Castello di Fonterutoli has been owned by the Mazzei family for 600 years, with 25 Generations of winegrowers.
- Their estate vineyards cover 7 zones in Chianti Classico
- This sophisticated wine and label are dedicated to Ser Lapo Mazzei, the father of Chianti Classico, whose December 16, 1398 correspondence is the first documented reference to Chianti as a production region.

94 WINE ENTHUSIAST

A savory nose of stone, soil and coffee pops with tart fruit aromas of cherries and blackberries. The palate brings sweeter, lighter cherry notes, with strawberry and salted milk chocolate. A bolt of acid pierces through a round, silken mouthfeel.

