

2020 MONTECUCCO ROSSO DOC

The Sassetti family, famed for their production of Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, expanded their vineyard holdings in 1999 with the purchase of 42 acres (27 planted) in La Querciolina, Montecucco Rosso DOC, along the Tuscan coast.

TASTING NOTES

Intense aromas of blackberries, candied plum, herb and spices. Fresh and fruity, with earthy and mineral characteristics, fine tannins, and a long silky finish.

TECHNICAL CHARACTERISTICS

Appellation

Montecucco Rosso DOC

Grape Varieties

100% Sangiovese Grosso della Maremma

Harvest

Harvested by hand, end of September

Training System

Spurred cordon

Planting Density

7,000 per hectare

Winemaking

Gentle grape crushing, fermentation in temperature controlled stainless steel tanks, 10-12 days of maceration.

Aging

6 months in stainless steel tanks, 6 months bottle refinement.

Soil

Volcanic soil

Alcohol

14.5%