

2022 La Côte Lascombes

AN AUDACIOUS NEW WINE FROM A STORIED BORDEAUX ESTATE

- Château Lascombes is a Margaux Second Growth known for its voluptuous profile and generosity, thanks to a large percentage of Merlot grown on its estate vineyards
- La Côte Lascombes is a wine that showcases a new perspective from a single vineyard block of Merlot with soils of blue clay and limestone
- Winemaker Axel Heinz gained fame with 18 years at Ornellaia, where he created Masseto, one of the world's most coveted Merlots

"The 2022 La Côte Lascombes is a new Merlot-based wine from Lascombes. It emerges from a few small blocks planted on clay/limestone soils that are very different from the gravelly soils that are more common in the château's holdings. Plump, juicy and seductive, the 2022 is a total charmer. Silky contours wrap around a core of pliant red/purplish-toned fruit. Sweet spice, flowers, mocha and a discreet touch of oak add layers of dimension as this opens over time. What a beautiful and promising wine it is..."
